

United Way is leading initiatives to help African American and Latino youth understand the value of staying in school, learn life skills and create healthy family and social roles.

The United Way Latino Initiative

The United Way Latino Initiative is engaging community leaders, providers and the youth themselves to support Latino teens and young adults as they speak out against violence and create self-identities that help them bridge their two cultures.

The United Way African American Initiative

The United Way African American Initiative is working with community stakeholders to help youth improve academic performance and school attendance, learn leadership skills and practice non-violent conflict resolution.

nicor, a generous corporate partner, has stepped forward to encourage support of the African American Initiative. All Leadership and Tocqueville gifts to the initiative will be matched dollar for dollar* through the Nicor African American Initiative Challenge Grant.

*up to $50,000

GIVE. ADVOCATE. VOLUNTEER.
